THE BALLAD OF DONALD WHITE - Bob Dylan

```
C                  F
My name is Donald White, you see,
  G7               C
I stand before you all.
      C                F     C
I was judged by you a murderer
                               G7
And the hangman s knot must fall.
       C             F       C
I will die upon the gallows pole
                           F
When the moon is shining clear,
    C             F
And these are my final words
     G7            C
That you will ever hear.
