

Dirt Road Blues

Bob Dylan

Verse: 1

E
Gonna walk down that dirt road, til someone lets me ride
A E
Gonna walk down that dirt road, til someone lets me ride
B7
If I can t find my baby,
E
I m gonna run away and hide

Verse: 2

E
I have been pacing around the room, hoping maybe she d come back
A E
Pacing around the room, hoping maybe she d come back
B7
Well, I have been praying for salvation,
E
laying âround in a one-room country shack

Verse: 3

E
Gonna walk down that dirt road, until my eyes begin to bleed
A E
Gonna walk down that dirt road, until my eyes begin to bleed
B7
Till there s nothing left to see,
E
tIl the chains have been shattered, and I ve been freed

Verse: 4

E
I been looking at my shadow, I ve been watching the clouds up above
A E
Looking at my shadow, watching the clouds up above B7
Rolling through the rain and hail,
E
looking for the sunny side of love

Verse: 5

E
Gonna walk down that dirt road,      til everything becomes the same

A
Gonna walk down that dirt road,      til everything becomes the same

B7
I ll keep on walking

E
til I hear her holler out my name
