

Sadness And Whisky
Bob Evans

SADNESS & WHISKY - Bob Evans

Tabbed by: Daile
Email: dailecb@hotmail.com

Tuning: EADGBE

Verse

C

I don t want to be a lone guy anymore

F

Now I ve found a love my lifes worth living for

Em

Never going back to God knows where I ve been

D

That s a dying scene

C

I don t want to be that sentimental guy

F

Always dreaming of the years that passed him by

Em

All the time forgetting what he holds on to

D

And for me it s you

Chorus

F

C

That s why I m hanging up my boots

G

F

G

This time you know it s true

(repeat for next verse and chorus)

Do you remember bout the time when we first met
How were we to ever know what to expect
Looking back at all the crazy crazy times
Wishing you were mine
Now I m sitting on the front step of our house
Just awaiting you to drive your car around
If I didn t stink of sadness and whisky
Could you marry me?

Cos this is where I ll always be
Come home and you will see

Interlude

F G C F (x 3)

Ooooo...ooh.....Oh my love
Oh my love
Oh my love

F Em A (x 2)

Ooooooooooh.....

F G

Now I m sitting on the front step of our house
Just awaiting you to turn your car around
If I didn t stink of sadness and whisky
Could you marry me?

Cos you are where I ll always be
Come home and you will see

That s it! My first ever tab. There may be something to add between the F and C in the but i dont know. Let me know what you think. Cheers!