

Changing Your Mind 2

Bob Schneider

C G F C
What s so funny is nobody s laughing at this change of heart you re having.
C G
What s so funny is I m filled up with thunder, but I can t seem to get out from under,
F C
all these stones you tied to my chest.

Dm
I can t change your mind.
F Am Dm
I can t change your mind.

C G
What s so funny is I m scared and lonely, and I don t think that I m the only
F C
one as I watch you drive away.
C G
and what s so funny is the birds are singing, sun shining, and bells are ringing
F C
and I m thinking, what happened here?

Dm
and I can t change your mind.
F
and I can t change your mind.
Am
and I can t change your mind.
Dm C
and I can t change your mind.

Am F
There s a chappel in Minneapolis and it holds the bones of a dead saint in it
C G
the stain glass glows from the ceiling there, and reminds me of the feeling where
Am F
I first looked into your eyes, and saw the most beautiful birds
C G
fly strait into the sun, their wings on fire, the deed was done.

Dm
Oh and I can t change your mind.
F
I can t change your mind.
Am
I can t change your mind.

Dm

C

I can t change your mind.

Whats so funny is this piece of skin, the one on my arm with your name inked

C

in. What was I thinking?

C

G

But what s so funny is the way things go down. Like when a star dies it doesn t make a sound. It s just gone, you can t find it when you look into the sky.

Dm

And I can t change your mind.

F

And I can t change your mind.

Am

I can t change your mind.

G

I can t change your mind.

Am

I can t change your mind.

F

I can t change your mind.

C

I can t change your mind.

G

I can t do it.

C

There s a werewolf out on my front lawn and he s looking pissed off and he s wet from all the rain.
