

- chords here are relative to capo 1
- however, it is fun to capo 6 and transpose the chords down 5 (G, D, G, Em, C, G, etc.)
- each of the verses use the same chord progression
- for verse 1, just pluck chords, if you want it to sound like the album
- there is an instrumental interlude before verse 3, i usually omit it when playing solo acoustic

C G C
there s some old flowers on the kitchen table Am F C
some photos taped upon the wall
F F C closet full of empty clothes hangars
Am F G C old box of kotex in the bathroom stall

G
C
 and there s still life even after you re gone
G
F
C
 still life even though the nights go on for way to long G
C
 because i m breathing even though i can t go on F
C
 there s still life even after you re gone

there s some gaps in my CD collection dog door, but there ain t no dog cause you took the dang dog when you left me
all that you left me was this cold gray fog

F G C F
 i know that friends some time are gonna take away the pain
F G C F
 and that before too long i ll be on my feet again
F G C F
 but all i know is nights go on and on and on F G C

and there s still life even after you re gone

[Verse 3]

i get up for work every morning to somehow make it through the day and when they ask me how i m doin
i bite my lip, tell em man, everything s okay

[Repeat Chorus]
