A# F
Tell me, quick, said Old McFee..what s this all have Cm D# A#
to do with me?..I ve spent all my time at sea, a loner.
A# F
Is there something else I should know?..something hidden Cm D# A#
down below, the level of your conversation?

CHORUS:

Gm Cm F
Well, he turned away before the answer..
Gm Cm F
though I yelled aloud, he refused to hear.
A# D# A#
It became too clear..

#2.

A# F
So, it went as we put out..I was left in constant doubt..
Cm D# A#
everything I asked about seemed private.
A# F
The captain strolled the bridge one night..I stopped him
Cm D#
in the evening light..to ask him would it be all right to A#
join him.

CHORUS:

Gm Cm F
But he stood there like some idol..
Gm Cm F
and he listened like some temple..
A# D# A#
and then he turned away.

#3.

A# F
All along the fateful coast..we moved silent, like a ghost.
Cm D# A#

The timeless sea of tireless host possessed us.

A#

The wind came building from the cold northwest..

F Cm D#

and soon the waves began to crest, crashing cross the forward deck..all hands lost.

A#

CHORUS:

Gm Cm F

I alone, survived the sinking..

Gm Cm F

I alone, possessed the tools, on

A# D# A#

that ship of fools.

OUTRO:

A# D# A# A# D# A#

Ship of fools.....on that ship of fools..

A# D# A#
