

The Famous Final Scene
Bob Seger

Intro: A F#m E A F#m E

Parte 1:

A F#m E
think in terms of bridges burned
A F#m E
think of seasons that must end
A F#m E
see the rivers rise and fall
A F#m
they will rise and fall again

Refrão:

D E
everything must have an end
A
like an ocean to a shore
C#m F#m
like a river to a stream
D Bm
like a river to a stream
E A
it s the famous final scene

(Repete intro)

Parte 2:

A F#m E
and how you tried to make it work
A F#m E
did you really think it could
A F#m E
how you tried to make it last
A F#m
did you really think it would

Refrão:

D E
like a guest who stayed too long
A
now it s finally time to leave
C#m F#m
yes, it s finally time to leave
D Bm
take it calmly and serene
E A
it s the famous final scene

A7 E7 G6 D
it s been coming on so long

E C#m
you were just the last to know

D
it s been a long time since you ve smiled

A
seems like oh so long ago

A7 E7 G6 D
now the stage has all been set

E C#m
and the nights are growing cold

D
soon the winter will be here

E A E
and there s no one warm to hold

(D E C#m Bm A)

A		F#m	E
	now the lines have all been read
A		F#m	E
	and you knew them all by heart
A		F#m	E
	now you move toward the door
A		F#m
	here it comes the hardest part
