(Maher Rabah-Nasr)

The world don't stop so we don't quit

The show goes on, tomorrow's here today

So live your life and do yo thing

Enjoy each moment, it could slip away

Because nothing is promised, nothing is free

There ain't no receipts or guarantees

When it's done there will be no service fee

Just a far away dream that you've yet to reach

That's why you gotta go all out for it

No half-time, gotta ball out for it

Full court press, life is the test

Can't play sick, can't call out for it

Cause I don't wanna fall, no skydiving

Stand tall through it all, that's a high riser

Maher Rabah-Nasr is

Making something out of absolutely nothing

That's the definition of a survivor

(Lauriana Mae)

Hold me when I'm down

Bury my soul underneath the ground

Let my blood keep pumpin

My heart keep beating

Shining like a chandelier

(x2)

So let me be like the trees where I can rustle my leaves to join the wind in the sky

If this was all a mistake, I'd rather leave this place than be a breathing lie

Hold me when I'm down

Bury my soul underneath the ground

Let my blood keep pumpin

My heart keep beating
Shining like a chandelier
