REPEAT INTRO

I found the first lieutenant
He said "God, they re going to bomb us

>From their vicious flying llamas!"
I dove into the llama shelter
I became Charlotte Cordet
And the battle fell away

But the peace that reigned in Upper Dreamland
Was badly negated
When the giant slugs invaded
I turned to face my fine young officers
I was barking out my orders
When they crashed across the borders

CHORUS TWICE

Repeat intro chords, end on D
