

Snow Charges

Bomb the Music Industry!

G

There s a patch of ice shimmering under the sky

Em

On the south corner of Bushwick on the residential side

C C/B Am7 G D

And Iiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii m afraid I ll slip

G

Most day when it s cloudy and all night i stay inside

Em

But it s 2:30 on new years day and outside it s looking bright

C C/B Am7 G

And Iiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii could use some chips

D C

And a bottle of soda

D C D

For my quest to rescue Zelda

G

Trying to be brave I touched the puddle to my tongue

And within a millisecond the bottom of my face went numb

C C/B Am7 G D

And no one on the street knew anything was wrong

G

So, I tried to move my arms to find that they were frozen too

And i tried to run away, my legs felt like they were stuck in glue

C C/B Am7 G

And Iiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii started to hear a storm

D C

Through my ears poured freezing rain

D C D

And it froze my freezing brain

G

A handful of neighbors gathered underneath the awning

D

Of the laundromat 200 feet from the front door of my building

Em

And it smacked my like a pinball

C

And it crushed me like a wrecking ball

Em C D

I was swallowed by a cold duvet and the kids are gonna have a

G

SNOW DAAAAAYYY!!!

G Em C G D
ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh x2

G
I couldn't bear to find out how the story was gonna end

Em
So I shut my eyes and went to sleep and no one found me dead

C C/B Am7 G D
Cause everybody stayed inside til March

G
And a patch of flowers grew out of the concrete where I lied

Em
Some boy picked a dandelion to give to a girl he liked

C C/B Am7 G
And she gave him a kiss That warmed his lonely heart

D C
Now they hold each other tight

D C
And stay in on winter nights
