Bon Iver

[INTRO]

G Bm G Bm

(When we leave this room it s gone)

[VERSE]

G Bm

Is the company stalling? We had what we wanted: your eyes

G

(When we leave this room it s gone) With no word from the former

Bm

I d be happy as hell, if you stayed for tea (I know so well that this is all there is)

G

This is how we grow now, woman a child ignored

Bm

These will just be places to me now The foreman is down (When we leave this room it s gone)

We re rising the stairs

G Bm

We find God and religions too

[VERSE]

G

Bm

Staying at the Ace Hotel If the calm would allow Then I would just be floating to you now

G

It would make me pass to let it pass on I m climbing the dash, that skin

[INTERLUDE]

(Here in this room, this narrow room where life began when we were young last night)

[VERSE]

D

Well we walked up on that bolt in the street

After you tied me in in the driveway of the apartment of his bed

G

Sent your sister home in a cab Said I woulda walked across any thousand lands
(No not really if you can t)

Bm

I didn t need you that night Not gonna need you anytime Was gonna take it as it goes

G

I could go forward in the light Well I better fold my clothes (I ll be looking through your eyes)

Bm

(I ll be looking through your eyes) All my goodness

G

(I ll be looking through your eyes)

Bm

(I ll be looking through your eyes) All my goodness to show

G

(Why are you so far from saving me?)

Bm

(Why are you so far from saving me?)
