Bon Iver

[INTRO]

B Ebm B Ebm

(When we leave this room it s gone)

[VERSE]

B Ebm

Is the company stalling? We had what we wanted: your eyes

B

(When we leave this room it s gone) With no word from the former

Ebm

I d be happy as hell, if you stayed for tea (I know so well that this is all there is)

B

This is how we grow now, woman a child ignored

Ebm

These will just be places to me now The foreman is down (When we leave this room it s gone)

We re rising the stairs

B Ebm

We find God and religions too

[VERSE]

B

Ebm

Staying at the Ace Hotel If the calm would allow Then I would just be floating to you now

B

It would make me pass to let it pass on I m climbing the dash, that skin

[INTERLUDE]

(Here in this room, this narrow room where life began when we were young last night)

[VERSE]

F#

Well we walked up on that bolt in the street

After you tied me in in the driveway of the apartment of his bed

B

Sent your sister home in a cab Said I woulda walked across any thousand lands
(No not really if you can t)

Ebm

I didn t need you that night Not gonna need you anytime Was gonna take it as it goes

B

I could go forward in the light Well I better fold my clothes (I ll be looking through your eyes)

Ebm

(I ll be looking through your eyes) All my goodness

B

(I ll be looking through your eyes)

Ebm

(I ll be looking through your eyes) All my goodness to show

B

(Why are you so far from saving me?)

Ebm

(Why are you so far from saving me?)
