For Emma
Bon Iver
Intro 2x: C Em F C
Em C
So apropos:
Em
                   C
Saw death on a sunny snow
          F
For every life...
            С
 Forgoe the parable.
          F
 Seek the light.
                 C
... My knees are cold.
Em
                                                      \mathbf{F}
                                                               С
(Running home, running home, running home, running home...)
Em
                 С
Go find another lover;
   Em
                         C
To bring a... to string along!
               F
With all your lies,
                   C
You re still very lovable.
              \mathbf{F}
                              С
                                                                   C
 I toured the light; so many foreign roads for Emma, forever ago.
