Postcards From The Wasteland

E - A

E A
Tonight the moon is pretty as a brand new rose
E
And the nosey stars seem to know
A
Where everybody goes
E E/D#
As poets reach for words
C#m7 B
With broken motel pens
A B
Hereâ€™s something to hold on to till I come home again

E Asus2
Here the days donâ€™t have names they got numbers
Bsus2 Asus2
And the nights just seems to dance into each other
E E/D# C#m7 B
Sacred lovers are like fire flies each one has a spark
A B
Trying to fill the whole where once there was a heart

E A B
Iâ€™m sending Postcards from the Wasteland
E A B
Following my headlights donâ€™t the highway in the dark
E A B
Iâ€™m sending Postcards from the Wasteland
F#m G#m A
Postmarked from the state of my heart
B G#m A
In care of wherever you are

G#m

Asus2

Now before the summer sun gets chased away

Bsus2

Asus2

And all of our tomorrows turn into yesterdays

E/D#

Iâ€™m gonna build you that castle

C#m7

B

Iâ€™m gonna write you that song

A

I gotta find the words to say

B

Until Iâ€™ve got you in my arms
