Me and the wife, we need the money
Am G F C C7
We ve got four kids all hungry, one on the way

F G
Slip these sweat socks in your shirt
C C7
and pray they think your packin
F G
Be sure to keep your head down,
Am
don t look em in the eye

F G Am Am/G F
And don t get fancy, Ricky, we ain t Jimmy Cagney
F G C C7
Look at me, let s do the job and let s get home tonight

F G C C7
I got a half tank of gas and if we run all the lights
F G C C7
We ll slip across the border on the wrong side of right
F G Am Am/G F
And just like Butch and Sundance we ll ride until the dawn
F Fm
Sipping whiskey, singing cowboy songs
C Em F G
On the Right Side of Wrong

C Em

We picked a helluva of a night,
 F G
 from the shore I see the skyline
 C Em
 In a couple of hours from now Rick,
 F G
 we re gonna get out of this life
 C C7
 We ll stop for smokes, I brought a six pack,
 F
 we ll stop at lookers on the way back
 Am
 Hell, we ll laugh this off,
 G F G C C7
 keep your fingers crossed that all goes well tonight

F G C C7
 I got a half tank of gas and if we run all the lights
 F G C C7
 We ll slip across the border on the wrong side of right
 F G Am Am/G F
 And just like Butch and Sundance we ll ride until the dawn
 F G
 Sipping whiskey, singing cowboy songs
 C
 On the Right Side of Wrong

Eb
 We ll make the grade, they ll know our names,
 Bb
 I need a friend to drive here
 F
 Wear my necklace of St. Christopher
 C Dsus2
 and talk to him while I go inside
 Eb
 I ll take that suitcase,
 Bb
 get the cash and we ll be gone before you know
 F
 Wait until we tell the girls
 Fm
 we re moving down to the Gulf of Mexico...
