

Sleeping All Alone

Bonfire

Bm A
Sitting here another night in television view
Seems like that s my only friend when I m away from you
Yeah, we had another fight about the other flame
Now you claim the candle died, but I say it s the same

You say I m the only one
Now that just suits me fine
you better treat me good
Cause I m forgiving you this time

D A G Bm A
I m sleeping all alone
Tell me you re coming home
I m sleeping all alone tonight

Bm A
If I had a half a mind, I d kick you out the door
And if I were an other guy, I d even up the score
But you see I love you and a body has a will
So please don t knock me in the heart, I hope you had your thrill

You know that you made mistakes
And me I made some too
So hurry home and ask me
If I m television blue

D A G Bm A
I m sleeping all alone
Tell me you re coming home
I m sleeping all alone

C#
I felt strong enough
D
To play a tough man s game

F#m
Quit chasing after love
A
That never ll be the same with you

Solo: Bm G D A (x3)

Bm A
See if you got your second chance and that s all that you get
Some guys wouldn t give you that you better watch your stand...

Arpeggiato: D A G Bm A

I m sleeping all alone

When are you coming home...?

D A G Bm A

I m sleeping all alone

Tell me you re coming home

I m sleeping all alone

D A G Bm A

I m sleeping all alone

Tell me you re coming home

I m sleeping all alone
