C#m Bm A

2nd Chorus: E Bm A

A E

E Bm
There are things I will not do
A E
I will even be mean and cruel
E Bm
And I will not stay with you
A E
Unless you give me all of yourself

And when I was a sandy blue
In friendship dwelled in western true
Smoke and pill and lovely tune
That was before you gave [a view/of you ?]

And make a future dream be ours
Through your eyes I swallow flowers
And disdain the winter showers
Choosing then to bathe in you

Chorus:

C#m

Bm

And I sing evil, I sing good

I sing as a seagull should

C#m

Bm

And if you melted then I would

E

Melt myself all into you

2nd Chorus:

E Bm A
Can you love the one that God does ?

E Bm A
Can you love the lily of the field ?

E Bm A
Can you tend the soil inside of her

A E

Till all has been revealed ?

/ INSTRUMENTAL " whistling /

And I sing evil, I sing good
I sing as a seagull should
And if you melted then I would
Melt myself all into you

Can you love the one that God does ?
Can you love the lily of the field ?
Can you tend the soil inside of her
Till all has been revealed ?
