E A D
But there s one thing he can t fix no how
E A
There s a longing in his heart

He s tried for years to work it out
A D
At the grill and at his home
E A D
Well he talks to his friends, talks to himself
E
He talks the chicken right off the bone
Talks to his woman and she understands
A D
You know they re always eye to eye
E A D
She runs the joint, they live out back
E
Small house under a big sky

[Chorus]

Well even the stars at night agree
A D
She sky is falling apart
E A D
She knows cause she can feel it too

There s a longing in her heart

[Verse 3]

E
Well now you and me, we re just like them

A D
We never wanted to be alone

E A D
So we made a pact, sealed with desire

E
For a happier house and home

A D E
Only to find it doesn t untie

A D
The knot where feelings die

E A D
There s a longing deep inside our hearts

E
And no one to tell us why

[Verse 4]

E
Our friends aren t looking for anything new

A D
They wouldn t know where to look

E A D
Well her, she likes running the joint

E
And he likes being a cook

A D E
Together they re doing very well

A D
They re might glad they could

E A D
But there s a fire burning towards them now

E
Coming from a distant wood

[Chorus]

A D E
And even the stars at night agree

A D
That the sky is falling apart

E A D
We know cause we can feel it too

E A
There s a longing in our hearts
