I m walkin through the summer nights
D F#m Bm F#m
Jukebox playing low
D F#m Bm F#m
Yesterday everything was goin too fast
D F#m Bm F#m
Today it s moving too slow
G C G C
I got no place left to turn
G C G C A
I got nothing left to burn
D F#m Bm F#m
Don t know if I saw you If I would kiss you or kill you
D F#m Bm F#m
It probably wouldn t matter to you anyhow
G D A E
You left me standin in the doorway cryin
D E7 D
I got nothing to go back to now

D F#m Bm F#m
Maybe they ll get me, and maybe they won t
D F#m Bm F#m
But not tonight and it won t be here
D F#m Bm F#m
There are things that I could say but I don t
D F#m Bm F#m
I know the mercy of God must be near
G C G C
I ve been ridin the midnight train
G C G C A
I got ice water in my veins
D F#m Bm F#m
I would be crazy if I took you back
D F#m Bm F#m
It would go up against any rule
G D A E
You left me standin in the doorway cryin
D E7 D
Sufferin like a fool

D F#m Bm F#m
When the last rays of daylight go down
D F#m Bm F#m

Buddy you re old no more

D F#m Bm F#m

I can hear the church bells ringin in the yard

D F#m Bm F#m

I wonder who they re ringin for

G C G C

Oh I know I can t win

But my heart it just won t give in

D F#m Bm F#m

I see nothin to be gained by any explanation

D F#m Bm F#m

There are no words that need to be said

G D A E

You left me standin in the doorway cryin

D E7 D

Blues wrapped around my head
