Capo 1

[G]I m a son of [Am]blue shirt wage
A [C]soldier of rock and [G]steel
Father worked an [Am]iron hand
And [C]mother taught me well how to [G]feel

At seventeen the [A]boy is free
Headed [C]west in a Chevro[G]let Expectations over[Am]blown
And a [C]mouth full of something to [G]say

[D]There s a woman [C]waiting for me [G]there
[D]With blue jeans on and [C]roses in her [G]hair
A [D]touch of gold to [C]pacify my [G]blue
I might not be a [D]dancer, but I ll [C]keep in step with [Am]you

[G]She s as young as [Am]rising sun
As [C]cool as an evening [G]breeze
She s got music [Am]in her blood
And a [C]heart full of harmony s [G]needs

She s the soul of [Am]self control
As [C]warm as the summer [G]sky
She s an angel [Am]when it s right a [C]bitch when she s being de[G]nied

[D]Out in the [C]back of some [G]cafe
We ll [D]hold the night a [C]million miles [G]away

And [D]wrap our hearts a[C]round one point of [G]view
I might not be an [D]author, but I ll [C]write the book on [G]you

[D]She ll be the [C]lyric in my [G]song
[D]A touch of soul to [C]keep me turning [G]on The [D]pinnacle of [C]all I ll hold as [G]true
I might just be a [D]dreamer, but I ll [C]fall in love with [G]you
