A: 002220
E: 022100
Bm: x24432
D: x00232

[Intro]
F#m   A   E   (2x)

[Verse]
F#m   A   E
Waited for your call, for the moon
   F#m   A   E
To release me from the longest afternoon
     F#m   A   E
I ve re-arranged parts of my living room
      Bm   D
But time is hard to kill since I met you
    F#m   A   E
I m looking at the cars that drive on by
       F#m   A   E
While spring is making promise outside
F#m   A   E
Red cars are quite rare I realise
        Bm   D
Then I wonder which colour you like

[Chorus]
Seven little numbers
        E
Baby, they could be a start
F#m
Seven little numbers
        D
Baby, I know yours by heart
F#m   A   E   F#m
   Woo-oah, oh-oh, all the pretty things that we could be
     A   E   F#m
Woo-oah, oh-oh, I feel you in every heart beat
     A   E   Bm
Woo-oah, oh-oh, were you ever in a dream that could come true
             D   F#m
These numbers could be lucky for you

[Verse]
```
F#m                    A            E
Watch the sky change to a darkened blue
   F#m                 A        E
I can t think of another thing to do
    F#m             A            E
And every song just makes me think of you
           Bm
Because the singers sounds as if she was longing,
        D
As if she was longing, too
```

[Chorus]
```
A
Seven little numbers
        E
Baby, they could be a start
F#m
Seven little numbers
        D
Baby, I know yours by heart
A
Seven little numbers
        E
Baby they could make a change
F#m
Seven little numbers
                D
Make a fire out of this flame
F#m       A        E                                F#m
   Woo-oah, oh-oh, all the pretty things that we could be
      A       E                       F#m
Woo-oah, oh-oh, I feel you in every heart beat
      A         E                                        Bm
Woo-oah, oh-oh, were you ever in a dream that could come true
           D                 F#m
These numbers could be lucky for you
```

[Bridge]
```
F#m         A          D           A      E*
I read your name on every wall, on every wall - tell me
F#m        A          D           A     E*
Is there a cure for me at all, for me at all - tell me
F#m         A          D           A      E*
I read your name on every wall, on every wall - tell me
F#m        A          D           E
Is there a cure for me at all, for me at all
```

[Chorus]
```
F#m       A        E                                F#m
   Woo-oah, oh-oh, all the pretty things that we could be
      A       E                       F#m
Woo-oah, oh-oh, I feel you in every heart beat
```

```
        A                   E                                                      Bm
Woo-oah, oh-oh, were you ever in a dream that could come true
                D                       F#m
These numbers could be lucky for you
F#m         A           E
    Woo-ah, oh-oh
F#m         A           E
    Woo-ah, oh-oh
F#m         A           E
    Woo-ah, oh-oh

[Outro]
Bm              D
 These numbers could be lucky
Bm              D
 These numbers could be lucky
Bm              D                       F#m
These numbers could be lucky for you
