Am

Four in the morning, the party s over,

C

I think I need you now.

F Am

I can t remember when you left me,

C

But I m alone somehow.

F

I can hear your voice ringing in my ear,

Am C

Telling me to just slow down.

F

Am

Sometimes I m on a run. What have I become?

C

That s enough, I m tappin out.

F

Won t you take me home? (I ve been standing too close to the edge)

C F

Take me home. (I ve been standing too close to the edge)

Am G

Calming down, I lost the fight.

F

C G F

And I can t make it out here on my own, so take me home.

(I ve been standing to close to the edge)

G C Am

Wrote you a letter, I never sent it,

C F

It doesn t matter now.

C

Am

C

All my intentions went out the window,

Don t let me hit the ground.

C

Am

Can you hear my voice, calling out your name?

C

F

I know that I let you down.

Am

Sometimes I m on a run. What have I become?
