

Two People Fell In Love
Brad Paisley

[Intro]

C F Am G

[Verse 1]

C
A baby s born I the middle of the night
C
In a local delivery room
C
They grab his feet, smack em till he cries;
Am G F
He goes home the next afternoon
C
Fore you know it he s off to school
C F
And then he graduates in May
C F Am G F
Goes out and gets a Ph.D., then cures all sorts of things
Dm G C F
Wins a Nobel Prize and saves a million different lives
Dm G C
The worlds a better place for all he s done
F G C F
It s funny when you think about the reason he s alive
Dm G C F Am G
It s all because two people fell in love

[Verse 2]

C F C F
Right now at a picnic shelter down by Caney Creek
C F Am G F
You ll find potato salad, hot dogs and baked beans
C F C F
The whole Wilson family s lined up, fillin their paper plates
C F Am G F
They ve drove or flown in here from fifteen different states
Dm G C F
Well Stanley Wilson says that sixty years ago he knew
Dm G C
That Miss Emma Tucker was the one
F G C F
Now five generations get together every June
Dm G C
All because two people fell in love

[Chorus]

G

Yea there ain t nothin not affected

F

When two hearts get connected

C G Am

All that is, will be, or ever was

G

Every single choice we make

F

Every breath we get to take

F

C

F

Am

G

Is all because two people fell in love

[Verse 3]

C

F

Well, I recall a young man who was

C

F

driftin aimlessly

C

F

And a young waitress who seemed

Am G F

lonesome as can be

Dm

G

C

F

But in a little café½ right off of Fourteenth Avenue

Dm

G

C

With a whole lotta help from up above

F

G

C

F

We met and things sure turned around for me and you

Dm

G

C

And all because two people fell in love

[Chorus 2]

G

Baby, there ain t nothin not affected

F

When two hearts get connected

C G Am

All that is, will be, or ever was

G

I m glad your dad could not resist

F

Your mama s charms and you exist

F

G

C

All because two people fell in love

[Tag]

G

You know, to me it s all so clear

F

Every one of us is here

F G

C

F Am G

All because two people fell in love
