[Next 2 verses & chorus: use same chords as previously]:

My friends gonna tell me: just calm down

The clouds you are walking are so high
This is my chance, and I ll invite
All the dreamers and lovers to fly (fly)..

I m back from the future, life goes on,
But still I remember my promise
You have to ask and I will show
The snow in the summer or so, so

If my star would fall, or disappear at all,
I will follow my star till the end of my days,
And my heart s gonna lead me through so many ways,
And if you gonna join me I ll be your guide,
Baby, never say never , be my Runaway bride
