C

G Em

I am not anything for the rest it is just the first sequence repeated and it ends on a G.

and all that i remember is the feeling of waking up, when we were kids you were the sun to which my eyes would not adjust, when we were kids i was a fountain you could never drink enough, then came all the boys who swept you up, played careless with your heart, and every night there was a new girl sitting beside me in my car, something dies when you grow older, but you do the best you can,
i am glad,
i am glad,
you found a good man.

this song is amazing and this is going to be their best album so far for sure.
