*Listen To Song For Strumming*

[Intro]

G Cmaj7 G Cmaj7 G Camj7 Em Em7

[Verse]

G Cmaj7

We sent out the SOS call

G Cmaj7

It was a quater past four

G

In the morning

Cmai7 Em Em7

When the storm broke our second anchor line.

G Cmaj7

Four months at sea.

G Cmaj7

Four months of calm seas

G Cmaj7

Only to be pounded in the shallows

Em Em7

Off of the tip of Montauk Point.

G Cmaj7

They call them rogues.

G Cmaj7

They travel fast and alone,

G Cmaj7

One hundred foot faces

Em Em'

Of God s good ocean gone wrong

G Cmaj7

What they call love is a risk,

```
Cmaj7
               G
Cause you will always get hit
Out of nowhere
       Cmaj7
                   Em
                              Em7
By some wave and end up on your own.
[Chorus]
The hole in the hull defied the crews attempts
          Em7
To bail us out.
And flooded the engines and radio
               Em7
And half buried bow.
[Verse]
     G
                Cmaj7
Your tongue is a rudder.
It steers the whole ship.
Sends your words past your lips
                               Em7
Or keeps them safe behind your teeth.
                        Cmaj7
But the wrong words will strand you.
Come off course while you sleep.
          G
                      Cmaj7
Sweep your boat out to sea
                Em
                            Em7
Or dashed it to bits on the reef.
G
         Cmaj7
The vessel groans
         G
                      Cmaj7
The ocean pressures its frame.
                      Cmaj7
Off the port I see the lighthouse
                         Em7
Through the sleet and the rain.
                       Cmaj7
And I wish for one more day
          G
To give my love and repay debts.
                          Cmaj7
```

But the morning finds our bodies

Em Em7

Washed up thirty miles west.

[Chorus]

C

They say that the captain

Em

Stays fast with the ship

Em7

Through still and storm.

But this ain t the Dakota.

Em

And the water is cold.

Em7

We won t have to fight for long.

[Ending]

G

This is the end.

This story s old

But it goes on and on

Cmaj7

Until we disappear.

Calm me and let me taste

The salt that you breathed

G

While you were underneath.

I am the one who haunts your dreams

Cmai7

Of mountains sunk below the sea.

I spoke the words but never

Em

Gave a thought to what they all could mean.

I know that this is what you want.

Em7

A funeral keeps both of us apart.

You know that you are not alone.

G

Need you like water in my lungs.
