[Verse]

G# C#maj7
We sent out the SOS call
G# C#maj7
It was a quater past four
G#
In the morning
C#maj7 Fm Fm7
When the storm broke our second anchor line.
G# C#maj7
Four months at sea.
G# C#maj7
Four months of calm seas
G# C#maj7
Only to be pounded in the shallows
Fm Fm7
Off of the tip of Montauk Point.

G# C#maj7
They call them rogues.
G# C#maj7
They travel fast and alone,
G# C#maj7
One hundred foot faces
Fm Fm7
Of God s good ocean gone wrong
G# C#maj7
What they call love is a risk,

G# C#maj7
Cause you will always get hit
G#
Out of nowhere
C#maj7 Fm Fm7
By some wave and end up on your own.

[Chorus]

C# G#
The hole in the hull defied the crews attempts
Fm Fm7
To bail us out.
C# G#
And flooded the engines and radio
Fm Fm7
And half buried bow.

[Verse]

G# C#maj7
Your tongue is a rudder.
G# C#maj7
It steers the whole ship.
G# C#maj7
Sends your words past your lips
Fm Fm7
Or keeps them safe behind your teeth.
G# C#maj7
But the wrong words will strand you.
G# C#maj7
Come off course while you sleep.
G# C#maj7
Sweep your boat out to sea
Fm Fm7
Or dashed it to bits on the reef.

G# C#maj7
The vessel groans
G# C#maj7
The ocean pressures its frame.
G# C#maj7
Off the port I see the lighthouse
Fm Fm7
Through the sleet and the rain.
G# C#maj7
And I wish for one more day
G# C#maj7
To give my love and repay debts.
G# C#maj7
But the morning finds our bodies

Fm

Fm7

Washed up thirty miles west.

[Chorus]

C#

G#

They say that the captain

Fm

Stays fast with the ship

Fm7

Through still and storm.

C#

G#

But this ain't the Dakota.

Fm

And the water is cold.

Fm7

We won't have to fight for long.

[Ending]

G#

This is the end.

This story's old

But it goes on and on

C#maj7

Until we disappear.

Calm me and let me taste

The salt that you breathed

G#

While you were underneath.

I am the one who haunts your dreams

C#maj7

Of mountains sunk below the sea.

I spoke the words but never

Fm

Gave a thought to what they all could mean.

I know that this is what you want.

Fm7

A funeral keeps both of us apart.

You know that you are not alone.

G#

Need you like water in my lungs.
