[Verse]

F# Bmaj7
We sent out the SOS call
F# Bmaj7
It was a quater past four
F#
In the morning
Bmaj7 Ebm Ebm7
When the storm broke our second anchor line.
F# Bmaj7
Four months at sea.
F# Bmaj7
Four months of calm seas
F# Bmaj7
Only to be pounded in the shallows
Ebm Ebm7
Off of the tip of Montauk Point.
F# Bmaj7
They call them rogues.
F# Bmaj7
They travel fast and alone,
F# Bmaj7
One hundred foot faces
Ebm Ebm7
Of God s good ocean gone wrong
F# Bmaj7
What they call love is a risk,

F# Bmaj7

Cause you will always get hit

F#

Out of nowhere

Bmaj7 Ebm Ebm7

By some wave and end up on your own.

[Chorus]

B F#
The hole in the hull defied the crews attempts

Ebm Ebm7

To bail us out.

B F#
And flooded the engines and radio

Ebm Ebm7

And half buried bow.

[Verse]

F# Bmaj7
Your tongue is a rudder.

F# Bmaj7

It steers the whole ship.

F# Bmaj7

Sends your words past your lips

Ebm Ebm7
Or keeps them safe behind your teeth.

F# Bmaj7
But the wrong words will strand you.

F# Bmaj7

Come off course while you sleep.

F# Bmaj7

Sweep your boat out to sea

Ebm Ebm7

Or dashed it to bits on the reef.

F# Bmaj7

The vessel groans

F# Bmaj7

The ocean pressures its frame.

F# Bmaj7
Off the port I see the lighthouse

Ebm Ebm7

Through the sleet and the rain.

F# Bmaj7

And I wish for one more day

F# Bmaj7

To give my love and repay debts.

F# Bmaj7

But the morning finds our bodies

Ebm Ebm7

Washed up thirty miles west.

[Chorus]

B F#
They say that the captain

Ebm
Stays fast with the ship

Ebm7
Through still and storm.

B F#
But this ain't the Dakota.

Ebm
And the water is cold.

Ebm7
We won't have to fight for long.

[Ending]

F#
This is the end.

This story's old

But it goes on and on

Bmaj7
Until we disappear.

Calm me and let me taste

The salt that you breathed

F#
While you were underneath.

I am the one who haunts your dreams

Bmaj7
Of mountains sunk below the sea.

I spoke the words but never

Ebm
Gave a thought to what they all could mean.

I know that this is what you want.

Ebm7
A funeral keeps both of us apart.

You know that you are not alone.

F#
Need you like water in my lungs.
