

Sunsets And Cigarettes Brandi Carlile

This is a song originally by the band that Tim and Phil were in pre-Brandi, called "The Fighting Machinists." This song is so beautiful and I couldn't find any tabs of it so I decided to post this. Watch it on you tube to hear how its played. A few of the words may a little off bc its hard to hear them, so please let me know if you have corrections. Also, Brandi Carlile and her band are amazing and true musicians.
