

That Year

Brandi Carlile

Artist: Brandi Carlile

Song: That year

Capo: 9

(Brandi plays this song by holding a G (verses) and moving the long finger and index down on the strings from there. See for yourself how she plays it by watching it on YouTube)

[Intro]

G D Em C

[Verse]

G

Must have been sleeping

D/F#

Must have been drinking

Em

Haven t been dreaming about you

C

for years

G

There was a sharp turn

D/F#

and a sun burn

Em

I was too cool for

C

G D/F# Em C

high school that year

[Chorus]

Must have been new years

no one invited you

you took things too far

but I missed you

and your antics

you were lonesome

blue eyed and

so special to us

[Bridge]

G D/F# Em C C/H

[Verse]

Am

C

You should have taken a long break

D

insted of a long drop from a high place

Am

G

C

G

Ten years I never spoke of your name, now it feels

D

G D/F# Em C

good to say it, you re my friend again

[Chorus]

He said he forgave you

I said I hated you

He was the bigger man

I was sixteen

All the innocence

it took for

you to finally make your yearbook

that year

[Bridge]

G D/F# Em C

[Verse]

Am

C

You could have taken some time away

D

insted of a long drop, instead of a leap of faith

Am

G

C

G

Ten years I never spoke of your name, now it feels

D

G D Em C

good to say it, you re my friend again you re my friend again

[Bridge]

G D Em C

I was angry

I was a baptist

I was a daugther

I was wrong
