

Hard Enough

Brandon Flowers

(capo 4ª casa)

G You let me in to your life unaware that there was magic and fire in the night Am

C And back then I was just a little boy G

C I made mistakes that caused you so much pain G

D All I know is that I m older now Em D C C

G Some people think that it s best to refrain

Am From the conventions of old-fashioned love

C Their hearts are filled with holes and emptiness G

C They tell themselves that they re too young to settle down

D Girl I promise you I m older now Em D C B

And this has been hard enough on you Em C

I know it s been hard enough on me D G G/F# G/F#

In telling myself that I can roll with the changes Em C D

And when the water gets high above your head Em C

Darling don t you see, D G G/F#

While this has been hard enough on you Em C D D

It s been hard enough on me G G

G I wasn t looking when we built these walls

Am When we spread my dreams at your feet

C Let s not let times build the flood rise G

C Before my thoughts begin to run

D Em D C B

I think I m getting older now

(refrão)

Em C Em C
Can t stand the thought of another, talking to you sweet my dear
Em C D
Where would I be tonight if you hadn t held me here, in your arms?
(Repeat chords from chorus)
Ooooohoohh

(Em C D G G/F# Em C D)
