

London

Brandon Heath

Intro: A Bm Asus4/D A5/E Bm E

A
My train pulled in to Waterloo
Bm Asus4/D A5/E
Found myself wishin you were here with me in London
A
Standin on the river Thames
Bm Asus4/D A5/E
Takin photographs of Parliament and old Big Ben is ringin

F#m E/G# D/F# E
You know, it s everything that I imagined it would be
F#m E/G# D/F# E
I had no idea that it would feel so empty

A Bm
Where are you tonight while I stand here and cry?
Asus4/D A5/E
Watching double-decker buses pass me by
A Bm
And to tell you the truth, it s all that I can do
F#m E5 D5 A Bm Asus4/D
To keep from jumpin on a plane that s headed home to you

A5/E Bm E

A Bm
I took a stroll down Abbey Road, tried to peek inside the studios
Asus4/D A5/E
And somewhere along they way, I bought you flowers
A
And a pocket map of the underground
Bm Asus4/D A5/E
Cause you and I both know I get turned around, I m so lost without you

F#m E/G# D/F# E
Though it s everything that I imagined it would be
F#m E/G# D/F# E
I had no idea that it would feel so empty

A Bm
Where are you tonight while I stand here and cry?
Asus4/D A5/E
Watching double-decker buses pass me by
A Bm
And to tell you the truth, it s all that I can do
F#m E5 D5

To keep from jumpin on a plane that s headed home

F#m

Six long nights and seven days

E5

F#m E5 D5

Across the pond back to the States, I can t wait

A

Bm

Where are you tonight while I stand here and cry?

Asus4/D

A5/E

Watching All the black umbrellas pass me by

A

Bm

And to tell you the truth, it s all that I can do

F#m

E5

D5

To keep from jumpin on a plane that s headed home

F#m

E/G#

D5

So, I m jumpin on a plane, headed home to you