Intro: Cadd9 G Cadd9 D Em7

Verse 1:

Cadd9 G
You ain t nothin like you re memory, Atleast it hang s around
Cadd9 D Em7
And that old photograph you gave me Well i can t bare to lay it down
Cadd9 G
And when this bottles empty, girl im gonna paint this town
Cadd9 G
Yeah, after all we re said and done.

Em7 D
Well, I don t have one good reason, you should turn and come back home
G Cadd9 D
Or the right to blame you, girl i don t have much at all

Chorus:

Cadd9 G
I still got your picture taped to the dashboard
Cadd9 G
On the mantle right by the front door
Em7 D
You said if you leave you d never come back
Cadd9
Well baby i don t believe but thats where im at
Cadd9 G
Its all of the wrong times all of the right things
Cadd9 G
In my right mind to say things i dont mean
Em7 D Cadd9
But baby thats me and its way to late
Cadd9 G Cadd9 G
I still got your picture on the dashboard

Verse 2:

G D
And I ain t like I used to be
Em7 Cadd9

Tough as hell and hard to please

G D Em7 Cadd9

But you came along and this ole boy hit his knee

G D
And the day was too much without you

Em7 Cadd9
Yeah my life revolved around you

G D Em7 Cadd9
And you dropped a stone down on my heart

Em7
And now I can't move on

D
Cause we danced to all our songs

Cadd9 D
Up to midnight all alone

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:

Em7 D
When I'm driving down this old backroad way to fast I'll never know

Em7 Cadd9 D
Girl, I can't look down cause I'll see your eyes right next to 65

(Repeat Chorus)

Outro: Cadd9 G Cadd9 G Cadd9 G D
