

Night Train To Moscow
Brazzaville

Capo on the 2nd fret

Am E7

Night Train to Moscow

Am F

Say good bye to the Petersburg sun

G C E

The half light of winter afternoons long gone

Pancakes and mushrooms

Tea with the hookers at dawn

The TV is warning of a coming storm

Am F

Come lay with me

G C E

Hide me in your arms

And sing to me

Of all the other sailors

Their promises, flowers and champagne

And in the end

Life s just a Sunday morning

Night Train to Moscow

Be kind to your loneliest son

There s frost on your windows but your heart is warm