Verse

D G
The morning lies heavy on me father

Em A
I couldn t find the time to fall asleep

D G
And I couldn t stop from thinking, all the deeper

Em G A
Cause the morning lies heavy on me

They said I didn t have to be there till tomorrow
And there s friends of mine I ve really got to see
But it s not goodbye and only soon to follow
And the morning lies heavy on me

Chorus

D G A
Tell me, who s the one who fights until he s broken

D G A
Is it the men who sit in judgement of us all

Em G D Bm
I wouldn t care if it was their lives they were taking

G A
They don t listen or even answer to the call

And tomorrow I will be flying from the mainland
And joining a new company
And some of us will never see our homeland
And the morning lies heavy on me

(Chorus)

And what s left for decent people to believe in
It s not as simple as to be or not to be
And what s the point, it s only us that we re deceiving
And the morning lies heavy on me

(Chorus)

The morning lies heavy on me father
I couldn t find the time to fall asleep
And I couldn t stop from thinking all the deeper
Cause the morning lies heavy on me
