Lyrics:

Don t tread the water, just stay still. I ll not be bothered, by you until.
I m picking sides and pulling the strings.
I m living lies and shedding the skin.
I m open wide and letting you in.
I m wronging rights, beleive.

I dont care what you want, i just want mine. Shut Up. Smart little bitch, i dont need lies. I dont care what you want, i just want mine. Get up. Force it to fit, confide inside.

Don t pull me under, into the deep. I often wonder, how it should be.
I m picking sides, and pulling the strings.
I m living lies and shedding the skin.
I m open wide and letting you in.
I m wronging rights, beleive.

I dont care what you want, i just want mine. Shut Up. Smart little bitch, i dont need lies. I dont care what you want, i just want mine. Get up.
Force it to fit, confide inside.

I dont care what you want, i just want mine. I dont care what you want i just WANT MINE!

Chorus a couple of times.

My... Dead... Eyes...
