Verse:

C G Am Em
You pretend to be there for me

C G Am Em
But in the end you ll just ignore me

C G Am Em
And I can t say what hurts me more

C G Am Em
The game you played or the final score

C G Am Em
But who am I to say these things

C G Am Em
To know how or why, or what life brings

C G Am Em
And I made my bed so I think I ll lie down

C G Am Em
Rest my weary head as it won t be long now

Chorus:

D A
And I ain t got the time

B A
And I don t have the patience

D A
For you or your kind

B A
And all your relations no

D A
New words of wisdom

Bm Am
From an old friend of mine

Verse(Played just like the first Verse):

So you go your way and I ll go mine
And it pains me to say that it wasn t our time
I ll see you again on down that road
And I ll call you friend but we both know
That a thousand years couldn t heal these wounds
And all our tears could fill these rooms

And I ain t got the time
And I don t have the patience
For you or your kind
And all your relations no
New words of wisdom
From an old friend of mine

And I ain t got the time
And I don t have the patience
For you or your kind
And all your relations no
New words of wisdom
From an old friend of mine
