Capo on 2nd fret

Verse:

C C/B
You think you re so smart

C7 A
but baby you re playing a part.

Dm Dm/C
I guess I m guilty again

G G7
because I always let you win.

And you got a heart
but it s weak and it s breaking apart.
Well maybe it s not too late and we could still resuscitate.

How should I feel
when I thought we had a deal?
We took a break
and now I m still awaiting my take.

The last time we spoke
you told me my life was a joke.
You laughed till you choked

G G7 C
and went back to mirrors and smoke.

Chorus:

F
And I kept the impression

C

that you think you re too good for me.

Gm

F

Well I ve got a confession:

C

I was only hoping for some charity.

F

And it s so frustrating

C

I just need one good night s sleep

Gm

F

Eb

Dm

and I hate the waiting just to see if it will keep.

Interlude:

C - C/B - C7 - A - Dm - Dm/C - G - G7

Verse:

Your day will come
and that day will pass you by.
The damage is done
and you ll just sit and wonder why.

It s such a shame,
it s a such a forgettable name
but no one s to blame
you went out the way you came.

Chorus:

And I got the impression that you thought you were too good for me.
well I ve got a confession:
I was only looking for some charity.
And it s so frustrating
I just need one good night sleep and I hate the waiting just to see if it will keep.

Bridge:

Eb

C7

You want them to like you

F

D

Gm

and always need you there.

Am

You want them to want it,

Dm7

Gsus4

you need to know they care.

You want them to like you
and always need you there.
You want to be wanted,
You need to know they care.

You want them to like you
and always need you there.
You want them to want it,
you wish that you didn't care.

Interlude

Verse:

So now that you're gone
I still wonder what went wrong.
Abuse what I love,
it's something I'm not very proud of.

You can't admit that you get so caught up in it.
You've got what you think is closest to the real thing.

Outro:
