Rose And Rodeo
Brendon Walmsley

Hey guys. Well I ve never done this before but I thought I d give it a go, after hearing one of my mates sing this I thought it was a great song and couldn t find the chords anywhere so I thought I d post them.

Any querys, or if you just wanna say something feel free to email me at

---------------Rose And Rodeo----------------

Verse 1:
    E                            E/F#                       A
She watched him ride wild horses, knowing that she couldn t go
                              B          F#m               B
To follow around that young cowboy, the one they call Rodeo
     E                                    A                  B
Your not to be seen with the likes of him, her father didnt want him around
     E         E/F# A    A/F# F#m          B
For Rose was his only daughter, the darling of the Downs

Verse 2:
  E                                      E/F#
A dance had been planned for that evening, Rose cried as she left the
homestead
                              B              F#m                B
She could feel her heart slowly breaking from the words her father had said
          E                               A              B
She just sat by the window and listened to that travelling country band
     E     E/F#              A       A/F# F#m           B
When rodeo walked  cross the dance floor, and held out his hand

Chorus:
```
   A         B         E       A                       B
May I have this dance pretty lady, Forget what the others will say
E          E/F#          A A/F#    F#m                 B
People might think that we re crazy, But I d have it no other way
   A         B         E           A                     B
As long as we re always together, Theres one thing that only we know
E             E/F#     A A/F# F#m        B     E
This love will last forever, Rose and Rodeo

Instrumental:

A - B - E - A - B - E - E/F# - A - A/F# - F#m - B - E

Verse 3:
        E                                    E/F#                        A
Now its been many years since that evening, the old halls not used anymore
                                  B                     F#m                    B
Except for an old man whos walking,  cross that old dusty wooden dance floor
      E                                        A
The children all laugh through the window, The danceband s not there to be
B heard
          E           E/F#      A             A/F#       F#m
But her eyes light up as he holds out his hand, she still remembers those words.

Final Chorus:

    A         B          E        A                          B
May I have this dance pretty lady, Forget what the others will say
E           E/F#              A A/F#     F#m                    B
People might think that we re crazy, But I d have it no other way
    A         B          E          A                        B
As long as we re always together, Theres one thing that only we know
E                   E/F#     A A/F# F#m         B     E
This love will last forever, Rose and Rodeo
E                   E/F#     A A/F# F#m         B     E
Their love will last forever, Rose and Rodeo
