

Providence Canyon

Brent Cobb

{Intro}

G C/G

[Verse 1]

G

On a night like tonight

C/G

Em

It s easy to believe love really might be in the air

G

The temperature is perfect

C/G

Em

And I m pretty sure Spring won t be going anywhere

[Chorus]

C

D

G

So whaddya say we all go down to Providence Canyon?

C

D

Carve our names in the side of a red clay wall?

C

G

Somebody grab matches, I ll get the cooler

D

D

Why didn t we think of this sooner?

C

G

D

The night won t last forever, after all

[Verse 2]

G

C/G

G

Roll the windows down, kick your feet up on the dash

Em

And ride away

G

C/G

G

Four wheels and a rusty frame is all we got, but just the same

Em

It ll get us there

[Chorus]

C

D

G

Whaddya say we all go down to Providence Canyon?

C

D

Carve our names in the side of a red clay wall?

C

G

I got the wheel, somebody play an old song

D

D

That reminds us we re still young

C

D

The night won t last forever, after all

[Bridge]

C C C G

After all stars fall bright there

C G

I can't recall a more peaceful piece of ground

C G

After all, tomorrow is unclear

D

After all these years

[Chorus]

C G D G

So whaddya say we all go down to Providence Canyon?

C G D

Carve our names in the side of a red clay wall?

C G

Somebody grab matches, I'll get the cooler

D G D

Why didn't we think of this sooner?

[Outro]

C G D

The night won't last forever, after all

C C/B Am

Oh the night won't last forever, after all

C C/B Am

Oh the night can't last forever, after all
