

Ashes Of Us

Brett Anderson

This is such a beautiful song Im surprised no ones beaten me to the punch
Ashes Of Us is quite an easy song to play chord wise
But its made difficult to perform simply because the main meat of the song is in the counter melodies and harmonies from piano / clarinet / cello / chimes / backing vocals. Anyway on with the show.

Please note you will find using a capo to play this makes it a lot easier (and if you don t have one do consider buying one - I recommend the shubb ones as they last forever)
If you re fortunate enough to have one put the capo on the third fret.

Eb	Dm
Eb	F
Eb	Dm
Where the sky is grey
Eb	F
And the clouds are torn
Eb	Dm
And the strange ones play
Cm	A#
And the insects swarm
Cm
Falling like feathers
A#
Drifting like petals
G#maj7
Pieces of paper
Gm7
The ashes of us
Eb
Break like bone china
A#
Faces in mirrors
G#maj7
Piece us together
Gm
The ashes of us
F

[Repeat previous chords with new verse and next chorus]
Where the orchid grows

There s a sunny place
Where I sip my tea
With the scarecrow s grace

Falling like feathers
Drifting like petals
Pieces of paper
The ashes of us

Break like bone china
Faces in mirrors
Piece us together
The ashes of us

[Middle - play each chord for a bar]

Gm7 Gm Gsus4 Gm9
Gm7 Gm6

[Back to chorus chords repeat to fade]