C G
You can spend your whole life workin for something
D
Just to have it taken away

C G
People walk around pushin back their debts
D
Wearin paychecks like necklaces and bracelet
C G
Talkin bout nothin , not thinkin bout death
D
Every little heartbeat, every little breath

C G
People walk a tightrope on a razor s edge
D
Carryin their hurt and hatred and weapons
C G
It could be a bomb or a bullet or a pen
D
a thought or a word or a sentence

C G
 There ain't no reason things are this way
D Em
 It's how they always been and they intend to stay
C G
 I can't explain why we live this way
D
 We do it every day

C Em D
 But love will come set me free
C Em D
 Love will come set me free, I do believe
C Em D
 Love will come set me free, I know it will
C EM D
 Love will come set me free, yes

C G
 Prison walls still standin' tall
D Em
 Some things never change at all
C G
 Keep on buildin' prisons, gonna fill them all
D
 Keep on buildin' bombs, gonna drop them all

C G
 Workin' your fingers bare to the bones
D Em
 Breakin' your back, make you sell your soul
C G
 Like a lung that's filled with coal
D
 Suffocatin' slow

C G
 The wind blows wild and I may move
D Em
 But politicians lie and I am not fooled
C G
 You don't need no reason or a three-piece suit
D
 To argue the truth

C G
 The air on my skin and world under my toes
D Em
 Slavery stitched into the fabric of my clothes
C G

Chaos and commotion wherever I go

D

Love I try to follow
