

Dancing At The Funeral

Brett Dennen

Brett plays the song in B without a capo! Only a true rock star writes and plays in B on guitar. Me--I put the capo on IV and use these chords!

(See the first verse for intro chords.)

G Bm C

Now s not the time to be so

G Bm C

sad and mournful we are

G Bm C

going to the funeral and we ll be

Am D

dancing the night away, so so so

G Bm C

don t be so shy we are

G Bm C

living and we re dying, we are

G Bm C

laughing and we re crying

D

every single day

strange but not

Em

surprising

nor is it unfamiliar, how it takes a

G

death like this to bring us together

you know you ll always be my

Em

flesh and blood

I could never do you wrong

and the one who was gone for

Am

so long is coming

D

home

Alright!

G Bm C

Now s not the time to be so

G Bm C

sad and mournful we are

G Bm C

going to the funeral and we ll be

Am D

dancing the night away, so, so, so

G Bm C

don t be so shy we are

G Bm C

living and we re dying, we are

G Bm C

laughing and we re crying

D

every single day

Em

We are getting older at the blink of an eye
so don t let the

G

moment pass you by

I don t believe there is a

Em

greater love, one that places some pain
in the love between a

Am

mama and her

children

Am

and the procession down to the

lighthouse

Am

we hear the crashing of the

D

waves, and the mistakes we

Em

made, you know that we are not the only

Am

ones, so we can

D

have some fun, have some, have some, have some, have some fun

(G, Bm, C.....Am, D)

G Bm C

Now s not the time to be so

G Bm C

sad and mournful we are

G Bm C

going to the funeral and we ll be

Am D

dancing the night away, so so so

G Bm C

don t be so shy we are

G Bm C

living and we re dying, we are

G Bm C

laughing and we re crying

D

every single day

(Big finish with that G!)
