

Raymond
Brett Eldredge

The intro heard is a simple pick played off an Am. There is a second guitar playing a G-chord pic. The best way to play the intro with one guitar is to strum an A-m and hammer on the pointer finger then pull off the pointer when switching to G. CAPO 3RD

G G G C

I work down at Ashbury Hills, Minimum wage but it pays the bills cleaning floors, and leading hymns on sunday. Katherine Davis room 303, the sweetest soul you ever could meet. I bring her morning coffee everyday.

G G G
Em D C

She calls me Raymond. She thinks I m her son, tells me get washed up for supper for your daddy gets home. She goes on about the weather and how she can t believe it s already 1943. She calls me Raymond, and that s alright by me

C G C
D C
Em D Am C

She talks about clothes on the line the summer air, Christmas morning and Thanksgiving prayer and stories of the family that I never had. Well sometimes I find myself wishing I d been there

G G
C G
Em D C

When she call s me Raymond..... and it s alright by me

There s a small white cross in Arlington, reads Raymond Davis 71. Until she can see his face again, I m gonna fill in the best I can

Em C F
C

When she calls me Raymond.....and that s alright by me. She call s me

C C#M G

C

Am

Raymond, and that s alright by me.

Strum through and song ends on G.

It s a beautiful song. Hope you enjoy it.