

Fortress 144

Brian Doerksen

Verse:

E                      D                      E
You are my God you are my fortress
My loving God my refuge and shield
You are my God You are my stronghold
Delivering me from the father of lies

F#m                                      D
Part your heavens and come down
   C#m                      B
Touch the mountains so they burn with fire

F#m                                      D
Send forth lightning from on high
   C#m                      B
Scatter all who would oppose your light

Bridge:

          Cmaj7                                      D                                      E (no 3rd)
All praise to you my rock, who trains my hands for war!
          Cmaj7                                      D                                      E (no 3rd)
All praise to you my rock, who trains my hands for war!
