

Some Of Them Are Old
Brian Eno

F Faug F6 F7
Bb/D Bb G C

F Faug
People come and go and forget to close the door
F6 F7
And they leave their stains and cigarette butts trampled on the floor
Bb/D Bb
And when they do.
G C
Remember me, remember me.

F Faug
Some of them are old, some of them are new
F6 F7
Some of them will turn up when you least expect them to
Bb/D Bb
And when they do.
G C
Remember me, remember me.

F Faug
Lucy you re my girl, lucy you re a star
F6 F7
Lucy please be still and put your madness in a jar
Bb/D Bb
But do beware.
G C
It will follow you, it will follow you.

(Instrumental)

C Csus4-C G G (4x)

F Faug F6 F7 (2x)
Bb/D Bb G C

F Faug
Some of them are old but it would help if you could smile
F6 F7
To earn a crooked sixpence you ll walk many crooked miles
Bb/D Bb
And as you do.
G C
Remember me, remember me.
