Artist: Brian Wilson

Song: Morning Beat

Album: That Lucky Old Sun

F

Maw, maw miama glory, Hallelujah

Maw, maw miama glory, Hallelujah

F

The sun burns a hole through the 6 AM haze

Turns up the volume and shows off it s rays

Bb

Another Dodger-blue sky is crowning L.A.

F

The City of Angels is rushed every day

C

That lucky old sun smiles on me

Gm

C

Wanna slide down the mountain to the dancin sea

F

I m listenin to the morning beat

It s risin from star studded concrete

Bb

This city has my favorite soundtrack

F

It makes you wanna move even though it s laid back

C

Take it in stride it ll kick start your feet

Gm

C

When you re tuned in to the morning beat

F

Driving through the maze of the Hollywood Hills

Headed to the ocean for a view that would kill

Bb

Watching from the Wheel in Santa Monica Pier

F

A million diamonds floating on heavenly tiers

C

The gentle wind won t make a sound

Gm

C

Even though it s forcing the waves to crown

F

Maw, maw, miama glory, Hallelujah

Maw, maw, miama glory, Hallelujah

C F/A
Hear those guitars gently strummin

C F/A
Hear the voices softly hummin

Dm Dm/C#
It s hard to feel down living in this town

Dm/C G
When you re so far away

Bbm C
It s a long long way from January

Bbm C
All the way to December

F
Even when the sun and I cannot sleep

There s an unspoken promise that we keep
Bb

We ll party all night into another day
F

And keep the golden glow of L.A.
C

Even when dreams are deep and sweet
Gm C

I m listenin for the rhythm of the morning beat

F
I listen for the mornin beat

F
I listen for the mornin beat

F
Maw, maw, miama glory, Hallelujah
Maw, maw, miama glory, Hallelujah
