G                                G/F#
I keep floating down the river but the ocean never comes
G                                C
Since the operation I heard you re breathing just for one
AM                                D                                AM                                D
Now everything is imaginary, especially what you love
AM                                D                                C

Back to INTRO

G G/F#
When I hear beautiful music it s always from another time
G C
Old friends I never visit, I remember what they re like
AM D AM D
Standing on a doorstep full of nervous butterflies
AM D C
Waiting to be asked to come inside

---0h2p0-----|
-----2--0h2p0----|
-3-----3-|
-----|
Just come inside

G
C D
But I keep going out
G G/F# EM
I can t sleep next to a stranger when I m coming down
B7 C
It s 8 a.m. my heart is beating too loud

---0h2p0-----|
-----2--0h2p0----|
-3-----3-|
-----|
Too loud
G

C D G G/F# EM
Don t be so amazing or I ll miss you too much
B7 C
I felt something that I had never touched

INTRO

G G/F#
Everything gets smaller now the further that I go
G/F# C

Towards the mouth and the reunion of the Known and the Unknown

AM D AM D
Consider yourself lucky if you think of it as home
AM D C
You can move mountains with your misery if you don t

---0h2p0-----|
-----2--0h2p0-----|
-3-----3-|
-----|

If you don t

INTRO

G G/F#
It comes to me in fragments, even those still split in two
G C
Under the leaves of that old Lime Tree I stood examining the fruit
AM D AM D
Some were ripe and some were rotten, I felt nauseous with the truth
AM D C
There will never be a time more opportune

---0h2p0-----|
-----2--0h2p0-----|
-3-----3-|

G
C D
So I just won t be late
G G/F# EM
The window closes, shock rolls over in a tidal wave
B7 C
And all the color drains out of the frame

G
C D G G/F# EM
So pleased with a daydream that now living is no good
B7 C
I took off my shoes and walked into the woods
B7 C
I felt lost and found with every step I took
