

No Prayer Bright Eyes

Capo On 1st Fret

This is an old Bright Eyes Unreleased, Search for it, good song!

G A C
G
There s no prayer I could say, no advice I could take, no pill that would make me feel better.

G A C
G
There s no fountain to seek, no cup I could drink. I know of nothing that ever grew younger.

D C G D C
G
But the universe it must go on forever, just like two mirrors that are facing each other.

D C G D C
G
It s reality upon illusion over and over until you can t tell the difference, they both just blend together.

D C G
And I just put each day in a box on a calendar, winter to summer.

D C G
And I ll go walking in that same circle for as long as I can remember.

D C G
I just keep hoping that someone would make me a better offer.

Bm A D C G
Cause I know the end that we see from our balcony is barely the beginning.

G A C
G
So I m up on the fence and I m still not convinced. Can t decide which side looks greener.

G A C
G
So I just stay where I am, remain indifferent. Let what happens, happen it s easier.

D C G
I ll go ahead and drown myself in the fluids of another.

D C G
Yeah my woman to me was as pure and essential as water.

D C G
And so she looked like me for awhile but she does no longer

D C G
cause she took the shape of whatever it was that held her.

D C G
She killed the fear in my heart but our love also got murdered.

D C G
She said my child you can no longer sing of that fever
 D C G
cause it s selfish and you are not selfish. You must get stronger.
 Bm A D C G
So I know when your lover leaves I guess all you can be is forgiving.

For the D C G bit I tap the guitar to the beat of the song after one strum and strum after the G for a better effect, you will know what I mean if you have heard it :)
