You were born inside of a raindrop

Fm C

I watched you falling to your death

C G

And the sun, well it could not save you

Fm C

It d fallen down too, the streets are wet

C G

Body of water, toxic and timeless

Fm C

The Atlantic ocean, New York skyline

C G

I always get lost when I leave the village

Fm C

So I couldn t come meet you in Brooklyn last night

C G

But I sing glory for my lowest

Fm C

And I will say peace to the people at me

C G

While the world waits for an explosion

Fm C

That instant of life that wipes that slate clean

C Am7/B

Am G

So don t be fooled

Am G

So don t be lied to

Am C G

Love was always cruel

Am G

Don t act strange

Am G

Don't be a stranger

Am C G

It happened to me, now it's happening to you

Fm

But if you take that train underwater then we could talk it through

C G Fm C

C G Fm C

C G

Well if I could tame all of my desires

Fm C

Wait out the weather that howls in my brain

C G

Because it seems that it's always changing

Fm C

The wind's indecision, the sorrowful rain

C G

I was a postcard, I was a record

Fm C

I was a camera until I went blind

C G

Now I'm riding all over this island

Fm C

Looking for something to open my eyes

C G

Well we still sing glory from a highrise

Fm C

And I will say thanks if you're pouring my drinks

C G

While the world waits for an explosion

Fm C

That moment in time when we are set free

C Am7/B

Am G

So don't stay mad

Am G

Just let some time pass

Am C G

And in the morning you'll wake feeling new

Am G

And if I don't come back

Am G

I mean, if I get sidetracked

Am C G

It's only cause I wanted to

Fm

Keeping up with the moon on an all night avenue
